

Sofia Must Do's

1. Experience the spiritual energy of the most beautiful churches in the capital

- Alexander Nevsky Temple Church - the largest on the Balkan Peninsula
- St. Sofia Church - one of the oldest churches in Sofia, which gave its name to the city.
- St. George Rotunda - the oldest building in Sofia, included in UNESCO's World Heritage list
- Boyana Church - beautifully preserved monument of Bulgarian medieval art with over 240 murals, also entered in UNESCO's World Heritage list
- Sofia Synagogue - the third largest in Europe.

2. Learn about the rich history of the country by visiting Sofia's most famous museums

- National Historical Museum - one of the largest historical museums on the Balkans, preserving over 650 cultural monuments
- Ethnographic Museum, with over 50,000 artifacts illustrating the life and traditions of the Bulgarian people.
- Archaeological Museum - the oldest museum in the country and one of the largest in Europe

3. Do not miss the symbols of Bulgarian art and culture

- National Art Gallery with over 3,000 artworks by famous Bulgarian artists
- National Opera and Ballet, where you can hear world-famous stars and watch original ballet performances
- Ivan Vazov National Theater - an institution with 100 years of history

4. Visit emblematic places where you can feel the pulse of the capital

- The open-air bazaar at the Alexander Nevsky Square
- The park in front of the National Palace of Culture (NDK)
- Vitosha National Park - the mountain which is the local's favorite haunt

5. Delight in the verve of Bulgarian folklore and taste traditional Bulgarian hospitality by visiting an authentic Bulgarian restaurant

6. Stay longer than planned and return again to the city whose name means Wisdom!